

CERTIFICATE OF COMPETENCY IN EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY

Total units required for Certificate: 12

Program Description

A graduate student may earn a certificate in Educational Technology by completing four 3-unit courses. These courses provide the competencies needed by teachers, trainers, or curriculum specialists to integrate technology into the curriculum, scaffold its inclusion in instruction, and disseminate that knowledge via appropriate staff-development needs.

Minimum Grade Requirement

Minimum required GPA: 3.0 for all courses in the certificate program.
