

BA IN GEOGRAPHY (METROPOLITAN AREA PLANNING)

Units required for Major: 46

Total units required for BA: 120

Program Description

The Bachelor of Arts in Geography with a concentration in Metropolitan Area Planning helps students understand how cities have evolved, with an emphasis on spatial patterns and the role of transportation in structuring settlements. The concentration provides students with skills for designing cities that address important issues such as sustainability, affordable housing and transportation, a strong civic life, and public health and safety.
