

ACADEMIC CENTERS AND INSTITUTES

Note: Centers and Institutes are added and removed from the list as funding and programs evolve. Please visit www.csus.edu/research (<http://www.csus.edu/research/>) for the most current listing.

Centers and institutes contribute significantly to the research, teaching, and service priorities of the University. By attracting external funding, academic centers and institutes provide opportunities for faculty and students to engage current or emerging problems in a search for new solutions.
