

ED.S. IN SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY

Total units required for Ed.S.: 100-107

Program Description

The Specialist in Education, School Psychology (Ed.S.) is an advanced degree that requires students to have completed both the Master of Arts (MA) in School Psychology or its equivalent, and the Pupil Personnel Services School Psychology Endorsement Credential. Completion of the Ed.S. requires additional coursework (beyond the MA and Credential requirements) focused on identifying and addressing school-related issues that arise during school psychology practice. The School Psychology program at CSUS is approved as a Specialist level program by the National Association of School Psychologists.

Note: If students are to graduate under the provisions of this catalog, they must maintain continuous enrollment from the date of classification to the date of graduation. Students who are planning to be absent for more than one semester must file a Leave of Absence request and have it approved prior to the absence.

Admission Requirements

Admission as a classified graduate student in the Specialist in Education (Ed.S.): School Psychology, requires:

- a baccalaureate degree
- a minimum 3.0 overall grade point average (if GPA is below 3.0, student may be accepted conditionally)
- proficiency in written English composition as demonstrated by either passing the California State University, Sacramento, Writing Placement for Juniors exam or equivalent, or passing ENGL 109W (or its equivalent) with a grade of C or better
- satisfying the Basic Skills Requirement (or having registered for the CBEST examination). For more detailed information, visit the CTC website (<https://www.ctc.ca.gov/credentials/leaflets/cl667.pdf>). Example of ways to satisfy Basic Skills Requirement include:

Department applications are due by February for admission the following Fall Semester. Applications are only accepted and processed once per year, during spring semester for admission the following fall.

Minimum Units and Grade Requirements for the Degree

Units required for the Ed.S.: 100-107

Minimum Cumulative GPA: 3.0. No single course in which a student receives a grade below "B-" will be counted as credit toward the degree unless the student has petitioned for acceptance of the course, and the petition has been accepted and approved by School Psychology Program faculty.

Note: A minimum of 21 of these units must be taken in residence at California State University, Sacramento. Use of extension courses must be approved by the advisor. Enrollment in Special Problems (EPSY 299) will only be granted under exceptional circumstances.

Advancement to Candidacy

Students must advancement to candidacy prior to enrolling in EPSY 239 and EPSY 540 or EPSY 542. School psychology students are typically automatically advanced to Ed.S. degree candidacy upon completion of their MA in School Psychology (having already completed Advancement to Candidacy Forms before earning the MA in School Psychology).

Students who already hold an appropriate master's degree at the time of admission to the School Psychology Program, and who do not want to earn a second master's degree, but do wish to earn the Ed.S. degree must file an application for Advancement to Candidacy, indicating a proposed program of study. This procedure should begin (typically as soon as the end of the first year in the program) as soon as the classified graduate student has:

- been assigned an advisor;
- removed any deficiencies in admission requirements;
- completed 24 units of School Psychology Program coursework content knowledge elective units with a minimum 3.0 overall GPA; and
- completed the Graduate Writing Assessment Requirement (GWAR) by passing EPSY 201, Legal Aspects of Special Education, with a grade of "B" or higher.

Advancement to Candidacy forms are available in the Department office and on the Office of Graduate Studies website. The student fills out the form after planning the a degree program in consultation with a faculty advisor and approved by the the Graduate Coordinator. The completed form is then returned to the Office of Graduate Studies for approval. Note deadline dates posted by the Office of Graduate Studies for submission of this form.

Culminating Experience Requirements

Enrollment in the Ed.S. Seminar (EPSY 239) and the Ed.S. Thesis (EPSY 540) or Ed.S. Project (EPSY 542) courses require students to file and have approved a Reservation Form, for these courses the semester before intended registration. This program follows the guidelines provided by the American Psychological Association's most current edition, for formatting of projects and thesis. The office of Graduate Studies, River Front Center, Room 215, (916) 278-6470, offers formatting guides and templates on their website.
